'For all your event identity needs'

Our Event Products

Lanyards

Our product portfolio is bursting with a wide variety of different lanyards, from plain to pre-printed & even flashing neon safety colours. However, we also supply personalised lanyards, of which there are many options available including different widths, colours, print types & clips. For a quote on your lanyards please contact us on the details below.

All stock lanyards are available for next working day delivery and personalised lanyards available in as little as 2 working days.

Name Badges, Event Passes & More...

Thanks to our in-house bureau we take away all the stress of printing your name badges, passes and event accreditation. We work on the design with you, ensuring it conforms to your brand & includes all the information you need. Once the design has been authorised we do all of the leg work and can ship them out within just a few working days. We can print any number of cards for you, with a variety of different techniques from dye sublimation to litho print. Depending on your design and the quantity you require - we'll advise the best print option for you.

Badge Display & Transportation

There are many different options for displaying and transporting your name badges. We stock everything from coloured cardholders, to vinyl sleeves to badge racks and conference cases.

Some options, such as our yo-yo badge reels can be branded with your event or company logo.

Our range also includes all types of badge clips and fittings so you can ensure your badges are displayed perfectly for your event and audience type.

Badge Printers, Accessories & Consumables

We stock all major printer brands of badge and ID card printers, including oversized badge printers, for sale or rental. All new printers come with lifetime telephone support and rental printers come with full technical support.

All printer consumables are available for next working day delivery including ribbons, cleaning kits, spare parts and blank cards - whether they be white, coloured or smart technology cards.

Our custom flight cases are perfect for transporting all your kit to the event.
